Who are SLS?

Salisa Language School (SLS) was licensed to teach English by the Ministry of Education, Thailand in 2014. We are in Pattaya, Chonburi, Thailand and teach from the “Eastern Seaboard of Thailand” which is a home of Thai industry, expat families and international tourism covering the Chonburi and Rayong provinces.

Our students can be categorised as local domestic, business English, and international on-line. Our objective is to “improve lives through teaching” giving our students the opportunity to fulfill their dreams i.e. immigration, university entry, travel and promotion.

We have built a team of teachers who are broadly focussed on delivering English Language training to students to be prepared for the domestic and international tests of English across the Globe.

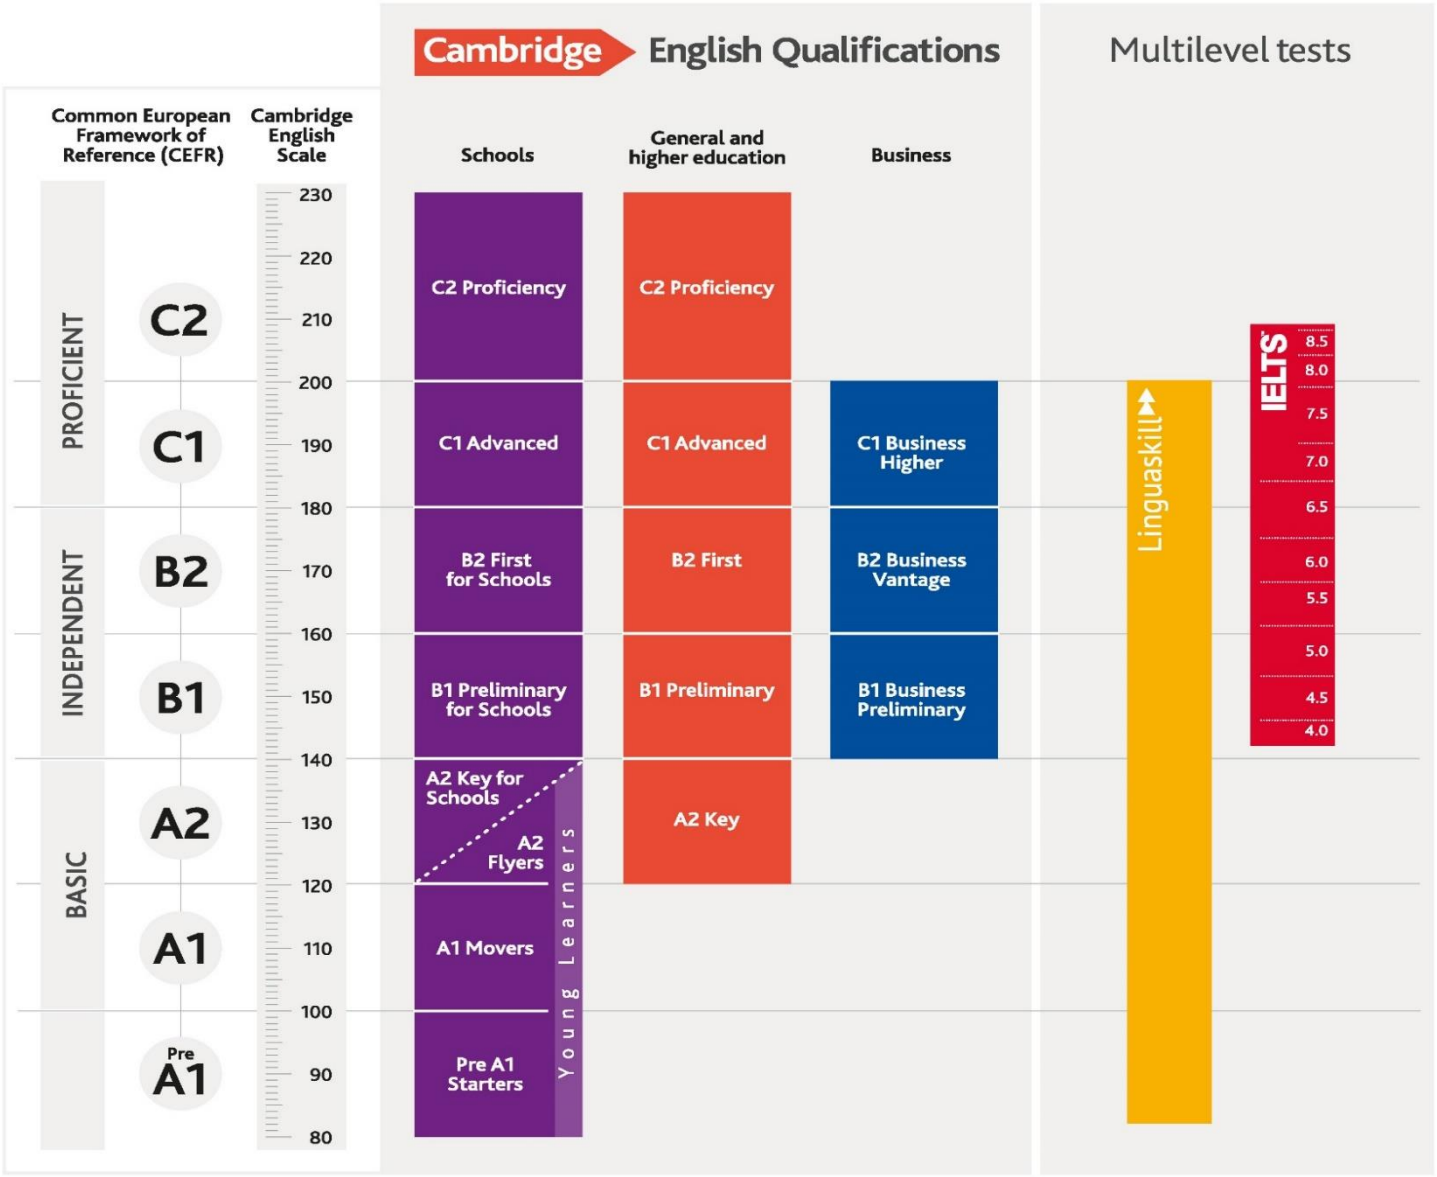

We adhere to the English learning standards set by the proficiency test writers and assessors. These guide SLS to prepare students for the highest chances of success when sitting examinations.

The following pages explain those tests of English.

CEFR

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) is an international standard for describing language ability. It describes language ability on a six-point scale, from A1 for beginners, up to C2 for those who have mastered a language. This makes it easy for anyone involved in language teaching and testing, such as teachers or learners, to see the level of different qualifications. It also means that employers and educational institutions can easily compare our qualifications to other exams in their country.

Proposed English Courses Year 1, 2, 3

Cambridge First is rapidly becoming a much-valued exam for entering schools of academia and workplaces alike. Therefore due it's flexibility it would be our proposal to guide STC students to complete this course and obtain this English accreditation.

After completion of the Cambridge First examination, students may opt to complete a TOEIC examination prior to leaving STC. This would enable students to use their remaining time at STC to complete an intensive TOEIC course.
